The Korean Commercial Arbitration Board (KCAB), Herbert Smith Freehills and Kim & Chang cordially invite you to this year's Women in Arbitration Virtual Panel Event held on Tuesday 3 November 2020. The event will be held online.

Now in its third year, the event aims to provide a forum for female professionals in the Korean arbitration community to network with their industry peers, discuss current topics, and develop the next generation of leading female practitioners.

This year, we are pleased to feature an interview with Ms Hilary Heilbron QC of Brick Court Chambers, who will be sharing her insights and experience, followed by panel discussion.

We are also delighted to announce that we are launching the first KCAB Committee on Diversity & Inclusion during this event.
