As North East Asia has risen in prominence in the global economy, Korea, Japan and China have become recognised worldwide as major economic centres for cross-border transactions. For companies engaged in international business in North East Asia, understanding the economic and dispute resolution landscape has become essential to doing business in the region.

Join SIAC and KCAB INTERNATIONAL for a joint virtual seminar on perspectives, insights and trends impacting international arbitration in North East Asia. Leading arbitration practitioners and arbitrators with expertise in the region will discuss key developments in North East Asia, from trends in overseas trade and investments to the impact of COVID-19, and their implications for cross-border dispute resolution.

Topics will include:

- The impact of COVID-19 on trade and cross-border transactions in North East Asia
- International mediation and its impact on international arbitration
- Trends in cases being arbitrated, including key industries and the rise of complex disputes
- Initiatives to enhance efficiency and lower costs in international arbitration
