

If you have problems viewing this email, please click here.

COVINGTON

Please join us for a discussion on

Sanctions and International Arbitration

Geopolitical tensions have reached their highest levels in decades after the U.S., the EU, the UK, Canada, Australia, Japan, and Korea imposed a swath of unprecedented sanctions against Russia following its invasion of Ukraine. As a result, a growing number of companies are facing difficulties in operating their businesses. Drawing upon the experiences of advising such companies, this panel will discuss the impact of sanctions on international arbitration in different phases of its life cycle.

Speakers:

Jeremy Wilson

Co-chair of International Arbitration Group,
London
jwilson@cov.com

David Pinsky

Partner, New York
dpinsky@cov.com

David Lorello

Of Counsel, London
dlorello@cov.com

José Arvelo

Of Counsel, Washington D.C.
jarvelo@cov.com

Moderator:

Kyongwha Chung

Of Counsel, Seoul
kchung@cov.com

Wednesday, November 9, 2022
7:00 - 8:30 p.m. KST

Log-in Details
Provided upon registration.

RSVP

COVINGTON

BEIJING BRUSSELS DUBAI FRANKFURT JOHANNESBURG LONDON LOS ANGELES
NEW YORK PALO ALTO SAN FRANCISCO SEOUL SHANGHAI WASHINGTON

www.cov.com

If you would like to unsubscribe, please click here.

This alert may contain attorney advertising. This information is not intended as legal advice. Readers should seek specific legal advice before acting with regard to the subjects mentioned herein.
To view our privacy policy, please click here.

© 2022 Covington & Burling LLP, One CityCenter, 850 Tenth Street, NW, Washington, DC 20001-4956. All rights reserved.