Turning Adversity to Opportunity: Managing Disputes on Emerging Markets Investments

As part of the Seoul ADR Festival 2021, we are delighted to invite you to a live webinar, jointly hosted by Korea's In-House Counsel Forum, on the very current topic of managing disputes on emerging markets investments.

As economies embark on the next phase of post-COVID19 – recovery, rebuilding and transformation – there are emerging opportunities around the world for businesses seeking growth. Emerging markets continue to carry significant and strategic growth potential for foreign investors including Korean investors in these unique and unprecedented times.

In this webinar, cross-border dispute resolution specialists from Herbert Smith Freehills Seoul and Singapore will explore common areas of disputes in emerging markets from the perspective of the Asian investor, providing practical guidance on steps companies should consider to best protect their interests.
